Boston Public High School Scholarships	Northeastern University has a longstanding commitment to Boston Public High School students and graduates. Through community-based programs, admission, and financial aid initiatives, creating pathways to college and degree completion remain a priority for the university.	$13,500,000	In Kind	Ongoing	City of Boston students	BPDA and Northeastern University	Boston Public Schools
Center of Community Service	The Center of Community Service (CCS) engages hundreds of students, staff, and faculty in service and engagement opportunities in Boston. Through these programs, the Northeastern community has demonstrated the commitment to use university resources to positively impact the communities in which we live, study, and visit. In the 2017-2018 academic year, students engaged in over 236,000 hours of service and community engagement, partnered with more than 250 community organizations.	$7,404,292	Both	Ongoing	Community	Northeastern University	Various
Foundation Year	Foundation Year is a first-year, full-time college program where students earn 32 semester hours of credit. Foundation Year students tackle a traditional freshman year college curriculum while receiving extensive wrap-around supports, including fully integrated academic tutors and personal and academic advising. After completing Foundation Year, students apply as transfer students to other colleges and universities including Northeastern University.	$2,700,000	In Kind	Ongoing	Local BPS students	Boston Foundation and Northeastern University	City residents and BPS Students
Carter Playground	Northeastern committed $108 million to the project, including $82 million for maintenance over the next 30 years, and increased the park's size by 25 percent by incorporating its Camden parking lot into the renovation. The park features two football and soccer fields that can also be used for baseball, softball, lacrosse, and other sports—as well as five tennis courts, open recreational space, and an area with equipment for children with disabilities that will be dedicated to graduate Victoria McGrath, who was injured in the 2013 marathon bombing and then died in a tragic accident overseas in 2016. In December, one of the fields will be covered with a temporary bubble to enable play throughout winter. This amount reflects year one of our thirty year maintenance commitment.	$2,666,666	In Kind	Ongoing 30 years. Year one of thirty years	Local Community, Northeastern Students	City of Boston and Northeastern University	City of Boston
Northeastern Crossing	Northeastern Crossing is a department within City & Community Affairs designed to connect area residents to University resources at no cost. Opened in 2015, Northeastern Crossing's roles include being a starting point for area residents to access professional and academic opportunities at Northeastern University; serving as a venue where residents produce their own programming and foster new personal and professional networks; and surveying and inventorying the University's community engagement initiatives.	$433,800	In Kind	Ongoing	Local Community, Northeastern Students	BPDA and Northeastern University	City residents, various organizations
