The State of Banking in the City of Boston

The State of Banking in the City of Boston 2021

The COVID-19 pandemic, officially recognized by the World Health Organization on March 11, 2020, was followed by a number of federal, state and local programs that were designed to manage intense social, economic and public health challenges. Those programs included the Federal Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) and certain residential foreclosure moratoriums Massachusetts and the City of Boston. While the favorable impact of these programs can be seen in this year's report, this year's edition shows that the region's most difficult long-term housing challenges are still with us, and bold federal, state and local changes are as badly needed as ever.

2021 Boston Home Ownership

Home ownership remains out of reach for many Boston residents.

In 2021, you needed to make approximately $133,295 to afford a typical Boston area home, which had a median price of $570,742. If you do the math, this means the median home price increased by $89,000 over the course of one single year. Census data shows the median household income in the area is $93,537, so basically, this jump in home prices represents almost an entire household's yearly income.

Even more sobering is looking at how this data has evolved over the last few years. In 2019, the median home price was $489,340, requiring a household income of $125,402. When, in 2020, the median home price increased to $507,597, thanks to lower interest rates, the average income needed went down to $121,096.

In Boston proper the income versus housing price disparity is even greater. Accordingly, a family would need to earn around $135,000 per year to qualify for the median home in Suffolk County, well over the household income of the average two-person household of $71,115 in the Boston area.²

Lending to Minorities and Low- and Moderate-Income Borrowers

According to the June 2022 Mortgage Lending Trends Report, by University of Massachusetts Donahue Institute: Blacks and Latinos have consistently received shares of total loans far below their population shares; the loans they do obtain have been much more likely to be higher interest Federal Housing Administration loans (FHA)*; and their applications for mortgage loans have been much more likely to be denied at higher rates.³

Historically, denial rates for conventional mortgage loans have been higher for Blacks and Latinos yet this discrepancy is not based solely on income. In Greater Boston, the denial rate for upper-income borrowers was 4.7% for Blacks and 2.7% for whites.⁴

*FHA loans are loans insured by the Federal Housing Administration. While a reasonable option for those unable to obtain a conventional loan, FHA loans are typically costlier and can indicate a lack of availability of conventional loans.

Foreclosure Update

During the pandemic, foreclosure moratoriums paused foreclosure for some time.⁵ As a result, only 19 properties had foreclosure petitions.

By way of context, at the height of the foreclosure crisis in 2008, the foreclosure executions in Boston numbered 1,215.6

Mortgage Lending Trends 2021

Banks covered in this report originated 5804 HMDA Mortgage Loans in 2021. Of those originations, 23% went to applicants who identified as a minority applicant. Another 16% went to applicants where no race was specified.

The proportion of applications that resulted in originations was 71% overall, 77% for white applicants and 60% for minorities (excluding race N/A).

Mortgage applications by minority applicants as a percentage of total applications was 25% in 2021 (excluding race N/A).

The total number of low-income HMDA mortgage applications received by the banks covered in this report was 561 resulting in 204 originations or an origination rate of 36% compared against an origination rate of 71% for all reportable HMDA loans by banks covered in this report.

The 14 banks profiled in this report received 24% of the mortgage applications submitted in Boston in 2021 and made 21% of the originations by number.

Small Business Lending Trends 2020

The total number of small business loans originated in Suffolk County increased from 30,199 in 2020 to 33,121 in 2021. However, small business loan dollars decreased from $1.8 billion in 2020 to $1.4 billion in 2021. The high loan dollar amount in 2020 is likely due to the issuance of government subsidized loans as a result of Covid 19.

The 14 banks profiled in the Small Business report originated $547 million in small business loans in Boston in 2021, equaling 40% of the total small business loan dollars originated in the area.

2021 Branch Bank Closures⁸

The banks, in this report, have closed at least 39 branches in Boston since the start of COVID, including those in low- and moderate-income areas. Branch closures have an outsized impact on some customers: small businesses that deal in cash; city dwellers reliant on public transit; older customers who've long done business in person; as well as people with low or moderate incomes and/or those for whom English is a second language.⁹

About This Report

Since 1999, BankIQ has prepared the Linked Deposit Banking Report to the Mayor, which reports annually on the residential lending, small business lending, and Community Development practices of the group of banks eligible to provide banking services to the City of Boston.

The report was created in accordance with section 6-8.2 of chapter VI of the City of Boston Municipal Code. Section 6-8.2 requires that any institution wishing to contract with the City to provide banking services or to become a city shall annually disclose depository information on its loan activity and Community Development participation and services. The Linked Deposit Banking Report to the Mayor, which summarizes these disclosures includes additional supplemental information, is intended to assist City officials as they compare the activities and performance of banks in order to help ensure that City monies are invested in institutions that contribute positively to the Boston community.¹⁰

CRA and HMDA Legislation and Reporting

The lending and Community Development data and analysis that form the core of the Linked Deposit Banking Report to the Mayor are the result of two landmark pieces of fair housing legislation: Community Reinvestment Act (1977), and the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (1975).

Community Reinvestment Act

The Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) provides a framework for financial institutions, state and local and community governments, organizations to jointly promote banking services to all members of a community, including those in low- and moderateneighborhoods, income that consistent with safe and sound banking operations. The CRA prohibits redlining (denying or increasing the cost of banking to residents of racially defined neighborhoods), and encourages efforts to meet the credit needs of all community members, regardless of neighborhood income level.

The CRA requires that each insured depository institution's record in helping meet community credit needs evaluated periodically and made available to the public in the form of performance evaluation reports. These CRA performance evaluations describe individual institutions' success providing credit, investments, services that meet community needs. Each institution's record is taken into account in considering its application for deposit facilities, as well as mergers and acquisitions.

CRA examinations are conducted by the federal agencies responsible for supervising depository institutions: the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB)¹¹, the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC)¹² and the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).¹³ In general, national banks are evaluated every three years and smaller banks that have received a rating of Satisfactory or Outstanding may be examined every four or five years.¹⁴

Institutions are evaluated using one of several methodologies, based on the institution's size, structure, and operations:

- Small Bank Evaluation. For institutions with less than $250 million in total assets, 15 performance criteria are focused on the bank's overall level of lending, its lending penetration in geographies of different income levels, and its lending to borrowers or businesses of various income levels.
- Intermediate Small Bank Evaluation.
 For institutions with assets between $250 million and $1.16 billion, 16 performance criteria include all criteria in the Small Bank Evaluation, plus a Community Development Test that considers Community Development loans, investments, and services.
- Large Bank Evaluation. For institutions with more than $1.16 billion in total assets,17 evaluation consists of a Lending Test, Investment Test, and Service Test. The Lending Test considers the institution's lending volume, as well as its effectiveness in lending to borrowers, geographies, and businesses of various income levels. The Investment Test considers both the volume and the complexity/innovation of qualified Community Development investments. The Service Test considers the accessibility of the bank's retail network, as well as the extent and responsiveness of Community Development services.
- Community Development Test.

Wholesale or limited purpose institutions are evaluated on the volume, complexity, and innovation of Community Development lending and investments, as well as the bank's overall responsiveness to credit and Community Development needs.¹⁸

For each bank covered in this report, the Linked Deposit Banking Report to the Mayor includes ratings, information, and analysis from the institution's most recent CRA performance evaluation.

Home Mortgage Disclosure Act

The Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA) requires many financial institutions to maintain, report, and publicly disclose information about mortgage applications received and the institution's action on those applications. HMDA also requires most lenders to identify the race, sex, and income of loan applicants and borrowers.¹⁹

The data reported under HMDA are intended to enable government entities and the public at large to determine whether financial institutions are serving the housing needs of their communities, and to identify possible discriminatory lending patterns.²⁰

The Linked Deposit Banking Report to the Mayor draws on recent HMDA data to provide an overview of lending rates and patterns for each of the banks covered in the report, as well as aggregate performance for all reporting financial institutions in the Boston MSA.

Additional Sources

In addition to the CRA performance evaluations and HMDA data that form the core of the Linked Deposit Banking Report to the Mayor, this report includes information drawn from the banks' websites, annual reports, news releases, and other publications. The report also draws on data from other government sources such as the FDIC and FFIEC Directories Institution and Massachusetts Office of Consumer Affairs & Business Regulation, Division Banks. As CRA performance evaluations are conducted only every three to five years, these additional sources are especially useful in providing up-to-date supplemental information.

2021 Boston Comparative Charts

The charts on the following pages give different views of the mortgage-lending activity in the Boston.

In the first two sets of charts, aggregate lending totals for all lenders in Boston are broken out by race, both for all HMDA-reportable loans and for low-income mortgages specifically. These charts include all HMDA and low-income mortgages within Boston; the 14 banks profiled in this report comprise a subset of this total.

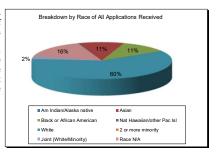

The third set of charts totals all HMDA and low-income reportable mortgages, by race, for the banks listed in this report, offering a comparison against aggregate performance in Boston.

When viewed by income, the bank's distribution of home mortgage loans by borrower income is adequate overall. The distribution of home mortgage loans to low-income borrowers is very poor. Discussion

Overall rating: SATISFACTORY¹³⁹

The Bank's most recent evaluation of CRA performance was prepared jointly by the Massachusetts Division of Banks and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation in 2021.¹⁴⁰

Lending Test

Lending Test Rating: SATISFACTORY¹⁴¹

General Responsiveness to Credit Needs

The bank's lending levels reflect good responsiveness to the credit needs of the Assessment Area. In 2019, Dedham Savings originated or purchased 395 home mortgage loans totaling $240.8 This activity represented a million. market share of 0.5 percent, and the bank ranked 44th out of 568 lenders operating in the Assessment Area. Lending activity in 2020 increased significantly to 727 home mortgage loans totaling $436.3 million. Because the mortgage market as a whole exhibited an increase in activity in 2020, the bank's market ranking was similar to that of 2019. The bank ranked 39th out of 579 lenders for 0.6 percent market share. The bank's loan-todeposit (LTD) ratio supports good performance. The average LTD ratio since the prior examination is 90.9 percent, indicating that the bank is redistributing a large percentage of deposits as loan. 142

In 2020 Dedham originated 100 loans in Boston of which 2 were to a low-income borrower.143

Responsiveness to Low- and Moderate-Income Credit Needs

The geographic distribution of loans reflects poor penetration throughout the Assessment Area, particularly in low or moderate-income geographies. bank's performance in both home mortgage and small business lending supports this conclusion. Examiners focused on the number and percentage of loans in low- and moderate-income census tracts.

In 2019 the bank received 4 applications for low-income borrowers and originated the 4 loans.¹⁴⁴ In 2020 the bank received 3 low-income applications and originated 2 loans to low-income borrowers.145

The bank has made focused efforts to increase lending in low- and moderateincome geographies, including proactive marketing and outreach to community organizations in the Boston area. As a result, the bank's performance under this criterion has improved slightly over the prior evaluation. However, penetration throughout the Assessment Area remains poor. 146

Regarding small business lending, approximately 57.8 percent of businesses located in low- and moderate-income census tracts in the Assessment Area are located in Boston, which is a competitive area where the bank has limited branch presence. This helps explain why the bank has difficulty originating a high number of loans in these geographies.¹⁴⁷

Community Development Loans

Dedham Savings is a leader in making Community Development loans in the Assessment Area. The bank originated 48 Community Development loans totaling $61.3 million that met the needs of affordable housing, community services, and revitalization and stabilization. This activity represents an increase over the previous examination, when the bank originated a total of $23.5 million in Community Development loans.¹⁴⁸

Responsiveness to Community Development Needs

The bank's Community Development lending exhibited a focus on affordable housing projects, and provided significant funds to support rentals and development in the Boston area that benefit low- and moderate-income residents or areas. Furthermore, the bank's volume of Community Development loans and ratio of Community Development loans to net loans compared favorably with three other institutions located in its Assessment Area of similar asset size and business focus.¹⁴⁹

Innovative and Flexible Lending Practices

The bank uses innovative and/or flexible lending practices. The bank originated 703 innovative and/or flexible loans, totaling approximately $112.2 million to individuals and businesses during the evaluation period. The highest level of activity occurred under the One Mortgage program and MassHousing for residential loan programs, and the SBA commercial lending activity. The bank also helped provide 72 grants to support the home purchases for primarily low- and moderate- income lenders or small businesses. totaling approximately $563,000.150

Investment Test

Description of Service Delivery Systems

Including the main office, the bank maintains 12 full-service branches and 1 limited-service branch.

Three of the bank's branches are located in middle-income areas, and ten are located in upper- income areas. The bank does not have any branches in low- or moderate-income tracts. However, two branches (East Dedham and South Boston) are located in middle-income census tracts that neighbor low-income and moderate-income census tracts.¹⁵⁵

Community Development Services

During the evaluation period, bank employees provided 104 instances of Community Development services to organizations that primarily serve low- and moderate-income individuals and small businesses. Most of the bank's services were provided to organizations that supported affordable housing and community services to low- and moderate-income individuals.

Discussion

Overall rating: OUTSTANDING¹⁸³

JPMorgan Chase Bank received its most recent CRA evaluation in March 2020.

The state of Massachusetts is Chase's 30th largest rating area based on its total deposits of $178.7 million, representing less than one percent of the bank's total deposits. As of December 31, 2019, the bank operated 15 branches and 103 deposit-taking ATMs within the rating area, representing 0.3 percent of total branches and 0.6 percent of total ATMs. The bank originated and purchased approximately $7.5 billion in loans or 1.1 percent of total bank loan originations and purchases during the evaluation period in the state.¹⁸⁴

Since the publication of the prior CRA report in 2013, Chase expanded its footprint in Boston and currently 12 full-service branches in Boston.

The bank delineated three Assessment Areas in the state of Massachusetts. The Boston-Worcester-Providence CSA (Boston CSA), which accounts for 100 percent of the bank's deposits in Massachusetts, received a full-scope review. The bank entered the Worcester MSA portion of the rating area on March 20, 2019, and the Cambridge-Newton-Framingham metropolitan district portion of the rating area on March 21, 2019. The Pittsfield metropolitan statistical area and Springfield metropolitan statistical area, which have only deposit-taking ATMs and no branches, received limited scope reviews.¹⁸⁵

Community Reinvestment Act

Overview

The Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) was placed into law in 1977. Its primary purpose was to prevent redlining. It requires banks and other savings institutions to take positive steps in meeting the credit needs of all the communities to whom they provide services. This includes those in low- and moderate-income areas.

The Federal Reserve Board, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, and the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, review and evaluate whether banks are meeting the credit needs of the communities being served. This evaluation, depending on its outcome, can impact an institution's ability to expand through opening new branches or merging with another institution.

The CRA gives the areas being served the ability to intervene in the process of regulation. Some of the concerned citizens groups may include: community groups, non-profit development organizations, small business organizations, and public agencies. They may make specific recommendations as to specific areas of improvement, depending on the performance of the financial institution in question.

Programs are then developed that list the steps that must be taken in order for the institution to improve its lending record in low- and moderate-income areas.

The CRA has freed up more than a trillion dollars in loans targeted to residents and businesses located in urban and rural neighborhoods. Financial institutions have also found that the CRA can provide additional, profitable business, so they take it very seriously.

CRA examinations are conducted regularly. The examiners look at five categories:

- 1. Ascertainment of community needs.
- 2. Marketing and types of credit offered and extended.
- 3. Geographic distribution and record of opening and closing offices.
- 4. Discrimination and other illegal practices.
- 5. Community Development.

The exam period varies from six months, for an institution that has an unsatisfactory rating; to twelve months for a billion dollar, or larger, national bank; to several years for smaller institutions regulated by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

The Financial Institutions Reform, Recovery and Enforcement Act of 1989 (FIRREA), formerly known as the S&L Bailout Bill, made three major changes to the CRA:

• Ratings for institutions were changed. Previously there had been a scale of one to five: one being "outstanding", and five being "substantial non-compliance". The general (or overall) ratings are now reported in four categories: (Ratings within specific test areas continue to be reported in four categories as outlined in Appendix C).

Appendix B – CRA Page 17-2

- Outstanding
- Satisfactory
- Needs Improvement
- Substantial Non-Compliance
- All ratings are now disclosed to the institutions and to the public. CRA evaluations are now published.
- As of January 1997, large banks are being evaluated based on their lending, service and investment activities. Larger institutions are being required to disclose information about their small business lending activity, and their mortgage lending activity outside of metropolitan area.

Regulations and Regulatory Agencies

FDIC

The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) is the independent deposit insurance agency created by Congress to maintain stability and public confidence in the nation's banking system. In its unique role as deposit insurer of banks and savings associations, and in cooperation with the other federal and state regulatory agencies, the FDIC promotes the safety and soundness of insured depository institutions and the U.S. financial system, by identifying, monitoring and addressing risks to the deposit insurance funds. In addition, the FDIC gathers data about individual financial institutions and the banking industry. FDIC publications contain information the agency has gathered about the banking industry, including statistical reports and studies that examine current and historical issues in banking and economic trends. There are various data applications that profile the banking industry, analyze national and regional trends, share original research on issues related to banking and deposit insurance, and report on such important issues as emerging risk and underwriting practices. They also compile financial data concerning FDIC-insured institutions. There are historical studies of deposit insurance from its beginnings in the 1930s.

FFIEC

The Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) established March 10, 1979. The Council is a formal interagency body, empowered prescribe uniform principles, to standards, and report forms, for federal examination of financial institutions by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (FRB). The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC), the National Credit Union Administration (NCUA) and the Office of Comptroller of the Currency (OCC). FFIEC makes recommendations to promote uniformity in the supervision of financial institutions. The Council was given additional statutory responsibilities by section 340 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980 to facilitate public access to data that depository institutions must disclose under the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act of 1975 (HMDA) and the aggregation of annual HMDA data, by census tract, for each metropolitan statistical area (MSA). Council has established. accordance with the requirement of the statute, and advisory State Liaison

Committee composed of five representatives of the state supervisory agencies.

HMDA

The Home Mortgage Disclosure Act (HMDA) was enacted by Congress in 1975 and is implemented by the Federal Reserve Bank's 'Regulation C'. This regulation provides the public loan data that can be used to assist in the following: determine whether financial to institutions are serving the housing needs of their communities; to assist public officials in distributing public-sector investments, so as to attract private investments to areas where it is needed; and in identifying possible discriminatory lending patterns. The regulation applies to certain financial institutions, including savings associations, banks. unions, and other mortgage lending institutions. Using the loan submitted by these financial institutions, Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) creates aggregate and disclosure reports for each metropolitan statistical area (MSA) that are available to the public at central data depositories located in each MSA.

OCC

The Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC) charters, regulates, and supervises all national banks. It also supervises the federal branches and agencies of foreign banks. The OCC was established in 1863 as a bureau of the U.S. Department of the Treasury. The Office's principal function is the supervision of the national banking system. A staff of over 1,800 bank examiners performs the statutorily required, regular examinations of more than 2,500 banks subject to the Comptroller's supervision. The CRA's implementing regulation requires the OCC to access a national bank's record of helping to meet the credit needs of its entire community, including low and neighborhoods, moderate-income consistent with safe and sound operations. It also mandates that the agency consider that record, in its evaluation of a bank's application for new branches, relocation of an existing branch, bank mergers and consolidations, and other corporate activities. In general, the OCC conducts a CRA examination of a bank every 24 months.
