Health Equity

Health equity is the just opportunity for every person to attain their highest level of health.

This opportunity is available to everyone and isn't deprived because of one's ability, age, class, gender identity, nationality, sexual orientation, socioeconomic status, race/ethnicity, religion and zip code.