COMMUNITY BENEFITS RECAP

Please note that the deadline for Community Benefits is April 1, 2024. There are also two additional data points we would like to collect this year (see footnotes for more info).

Once completed, please rename the document to reflect the name of your organization. Email an excel and PDF version for the plant in the plant is a plant to the plant in the plant is a plant in the plant.

INSTITUTION NAME:	ent to reflect the name of your organization. Email an excel and PDF version to PILOTprogram@boston.qov.  Boston Medical Center		Cash, In-		FINANCIAL YEAR:	FY2024	City-wide or Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Kind, or Both <sup>1</sup>	1-time or Ongoing <sup>2</sup>	Who is Served <sup>3</sup>	Program Initiator <sup>4</sup>	Neighborhoods Served <sup>5</sup>	Community Benefit Category <sup>6</sup>	Partners
reventive Food Pantry and Teaching Kitchen	Boston Medical Center's Food Pantry and Teaching Kitchen address hunger-related illness and mainutrition among our low-income patient population. Individuals at risk of mainutrition – the chronically III, undernourished children, the elderly, the homeless, and others – are referred to the program by Boston Medical Center (BMC) physicians and/or nutritionists. They are provided with "prescriptions" for supplemental food that best promotes physical health, prevents future illness, and facilitates recovery.	$535,811	100% cash	ongoing since 2001	low-income patients who are at risk of malnutrition	вмс	City-wide	Built Environment	Greater Boston Fe Bank, Ocean Sta Job Lot, Food fc Free, Whole Foo Pepperidge Farr Walmart, and lo churches, synagogues, an iolence Intervention Advocacy Program	VIAP supports a safe and healthy community. Violence Intervention Advocates (community health workers) provide individual counseling, triage and referral services. Direct services and referrals to services include crisis intervention and stabilization, housing and transportation, legal assistance, education, vocational and life skills development, mental health, employment, and health and wellness education.	$1,166,647	30% cash, 70% other	ongoing since 2006	Boston residents who are victims of gun and knife violence and homicides, and their family members	вмс	City-wide	Violence Prevention	Boston Public Hea Commission, Massachusetts Department of Pul Health, Boston Pol Dept, Suffolk Cour District Attorney Boston Hospital Violence Collaborative, Pea Instistute, Bosto hild Witness to Violence Program	CWVP is a nationally-recognized and award-winning counseling, outreach, and consultation program that offers a flexible combination of services to children and their families, including: intensive trauma-focused counseling that is developmentally tailored to very young children and their parents; access to legal advocacy; and assistance with linking to other necessary services including health care, child care, housing, and after-school programs. The training/clinical consultation component of the program delivers trainings across Massachusetts and 12 states.	$1,117,594	100% other	ongoing since 1992	Children from Boston and Greater Boston who are under the age of 8 and who have been exposed to domestic or community violence	вмс	Boston and Greater Boston	Violence Prevention	Governor's Counci Sexual and Dome Violence, Child Advocacy Center Suffolk County, Ea Trauma Treatme Network iving Well at Home	The Living Well at Home Program ("LWAH" and formerly the Elders Living at Home Program) supports individuals and families experiencing or at risk of homelessness find and maintain permanent housing in order to improve their health and wellbeing. LWAH serves people in greatest need, including non-English-speakers, edders, individuals with chronic health issues and disabilities, jow-income residents, and black and brown residents. LWAH is committed to providing high-quality services that build on our clients' strengths and help each client reach their highest potential. The LWAH model encompasses case management, care coordinators, care excessor, and advocacy for clients. Our strong partnerships within BMC and with other agencies help us provide the wraperound support and resources necessary to achieve housing and health goals.	$2,645,891	20% cash, 80% other	ongoing since 1987	Homeless and at-risk individuals and families, focusing on elders and people with disabilities and chronic health conditions	вмс	City-wide	Housing	City of Boston Mayor's Office o Housing, US Administration o Aging, Commonwealth Massachusetts Executive Office Eider Affairs, Bost Housing Authorit Cambridge Housi irth Sisters	Birth Sisters is a home visiting and labor support program that assists low-income expectant and new mothers at risk for complications due to medical or social factors such as social isolation, domestic violence, infants with anticipated significant medical problems such as but not limited to low birth weight, and families with complex psychosocial issues. A Birth Sister from the same culture and community as the mother assists during pregnancy, childbirth and early motherhood; she becomes a crucial link between the family and health are system. Birth Sisters is also a workforce development program. Birth Ctrans Birth Sisters, typically unskilled women, and provides them with a certificate upon successful completion of the program. The women are paid an hourly wage for their services, helping them economically. Birth Sisters offers an entryway to the workforce. Many Rith Sisters have one on to heroeme survival assistants, interproters, nurses, midwiws and multihe health professionals.	$172,875	100% other	ongoing since 1999	Low-income families	ВМС	Roxbury, Mattapan, East Boston, South Boston, and Dorchester	Other irow Clinic	The Grow Clinic for Children is an outpatient subspecialty clinic, of BMC's Department of Pediatrics, that provides comprehensive specialty medical, nutritional, developmental and social services as well as dietary assistance to children diagnosed with Failure To Thrive by their primary care of physician. In addition to clinical services, the Grow Clinic advocates for policies that decrease the number of children in need.	$1,210,998	17% cash, 83% other	ongoing since 1984	Children experiencing Failure to Thrive	ВМС	City-wide	Other	Massachusetts Department of Pu Health, Morgai treetCred	StreetCred builds economic mobility and health equity with families and children by leveraging trust in, and access to, health care. Streetcred provides the following financial planning services in BMCs pediatric primary care clinic: 1) free on-site tax preparation for low income families 2) Access to a bundle of underutilized cash-like/asset building resources to all families of newborns during the child's first year of life and 3) on site trauma informed financial coaching classes.	$361,319	100% other	ongoing since 2016	Low-income families	вмс	Roxbury, Mattapan, East Boston, South Boston, and Dorchester	Other: Economic Mobility	Stanley Foundati Boston Tax Hell Coalition, Martha I Health Center, So End Community Health Center, Boston Health Ca for the Homeles risto Rey High School Partnership	Through this partnership, three students come to BMC one day a week to work in a department of interest. Students provide services for the organization while gaining valuable work skills and exposure to working in a business environment.	$21,500	70% cash, 30% in-kind	ongoing	Students of the Cristo Rey High School, Dorchester	BMC Human Resources	Dorchester	Employment	Cristo Rey Hig School nmigrant Professionals Fellowship Program	Immigrant professionals face many challenges to work in healthcare in the United States. Many have previous experience from other countries but struggle to find work in the same career here. At the same time, the healthcare industry needs the skills and diversity of immigrants to reduce racial disparities. This fellowship helps bridge that gap and places foreign-trained professionals into paid fellowships with leading hospitals in Greater boston.	$10,000	100% in-kind	ongoing	Immigrants	African Bridge Network	City-wide	Employment	African Bridge Network, City of Boston Immigrant Advancement

			Cash, In- Kind, or	1-time or		Program Initiator <sup>4</sup>	City-wide or Neighborhoods	Community Benefit Program Name	Brief Program Description	Amount ($)	Both*	Ongoing*	Who is Served	Program Initiator	Served <sup>5</sup>	Category <sup>6</sup>	Partners