

HOW TO GET RID OF HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE IN BOSTON:

Many chemicals, materials, and products commonly found in the home are toxic and can be harmful to your health and our environment. Learn how to recycle or dispose of these items responsibly.

ZERO WASTE DAY

- Accepts: batteries, electronics, chemicals, oil-based paint, lightbulbs, car related materials, textiles, and paper for shredding
- 2025 Zero Waste Days:
 - May 17 | 400 Frontage Rd | Central PWD Facility | 8:30 am - 12 pm
 - June 28 | 315 Gardner St | W. Roxbury PWD | 8:30 am - 12 pm
 - August 16 | 315 Gardner St | W. Roxbury PWD | 8:30 am - 12 pm
 - September 27 | 400 Frontage Rd | Central PWD Facility | 8:30 am - 12 pm

ZERO WASTE POP-UP

- Accepts at least 2 of the materials listed above
- 2025 Zero Waste Pop-Ups:
 - April 12 | 58 Dana Ave, Hyde Park | 8:30 am - 12 pm
 - October 25 | East Boston Memorial Park | 8:30 am - 12 pm
 - November 8 | 327 Forest Hills St, Jamaica Plain | 8:30 am - 12 pm

RETAIL DROP-OFF

- Find local stores that accept various household hazardous waste items for proper disposal on boston.gov/zero-waste-directory

For more information visit boston.gov/zero-waste-day