

HOW TO GET RID OF HOUSEHOLD HAZARDOUS WASTE IN BOSTON:

Many chemicals, materials, and products commonly found in the home are toxic and can be harmful to your health and our environment. Learn how to recycle or dispose of these items responsibly.

ZERO WASTE DAY

- Accepts: batteries, electronics, chemicals, oil-based paint, lightbulbs, car related materials, textiles, and paper for shredding
- 2026 Zero Waste Days:
 - May 16 | 400 Frontage Rd | Central PWD Facility | 8:30 am - 12 pm
 - June 27 | 315 Gardner St | W. Roxbury PWD | 8:30 am - 12 pm
 - August 15 | 315 Gardner St | W. Roxbury PWD | 8:30 am - 12 pm
 - November 21 (Rescheduled) | 315 Gardner St | W. Roxbury PWD | 8:30 am - 12 pm

RETAIL DROP-OFF

- Find local stores that accept various household hazardous waste items for proper disposal on boston.gov/zero-waste-directory

For more information visit boston.gov/zero-waste-day

ZERO WASTE

Public Works